

WASH campaign organized under OIL Arogya and OIL Shakti at Laipuli

12th July, 2024: Under OIL Arogya and OIL Shakti, in association with UNICEF, a day long WASH (water, sanitation & hygiene) campaign was held at Laipuli in Tinsukia, Assam. The event started with the Swachhta pledge. Several activities were held as part of the campaign, including the distribution of hygiene kits, OIL Shakti sanitary napkins, a cleanliness campaign, a drama on menstrual health by teenage girls, and a mini exhibition by village kids on recycled/up-cycled products manufactured from waste items. An awareness programme was held on WASH & Swachhta by the officials of OIRDS/OIL's CSR team, UNICEF and Swachh Bharat Mission, Tinsukia. A rally was organised with women from several villages raising Swachhta slogans. SAATHIYA club members also performed a street play on 'Hygiene'. More than 120 people took part in the full event. Furthermore, OIL organised a tree planting drive in Laipuli Gaon Panchayat.

