

OIL's Swabalamban Initiative Employs Over 100 Hospitality Trainees in Guwahati

Date: 26th December 2023

At Pragati Edutech Guwahati, more than 100 trainees of Hospitality Stewardship under OIL's CSR Project Swabalamban received employment letters. Shri Ashok Das, Director (HR), OIL, presented the letters in the presence of Shri Jayanta Barua, CEO, SDIG, and officials from Pragati Edutech.

Under OIL's Swabalamban, 830 individuals are undergoing training in hospitality. The first batch of 210 has completed training and secured employment, while the second batch of 180 has also finished training, with over 100 already employed in prestigious hospitality brands nationwide.

In his address, Shri Ashok Das congratulated the achievers and encouraged them to embrace their roles with dedication. He stressed the importance of avoiding intoxicants and drugs for a brighter future.
