3.0 BRIEF GEOLOGY & LOCATION OF THE AREA FROM WHICH DATA ACQUIRED:

- 3.1 The Northeastern parts of India constitute the seven federal states of erstwhile mother state of Assam. These are; Assam, Arunachal Pradesh, Meghalaya, Nagaland and the contiguous states of Manipur, Mizoram and Tripura. It constitutes the sedimentary basin complex of Assam Shelf and Assam-Arakan. Physiographically, Cachar, the southern district of Assam, forms an entrenched part of Manipur – Mizoram and Tripura. Myanmar and Bangladesh are, respectively, to the east and west of these states. The Assam-Arakan sedimentary basin is a shelf-slope-basinal system. The shelf part of the basin spreads over the Brahmaputra valley. The basinal part (geosynclinal) is occupied by the Naga Schuppen belt and the Cachar, Tripura, Mizoram and Manipur fold belts. The Assam-Arakan fold belt extends southward to the Cachar-Mizo fold zone. West of this zone, lies the frontal belt of Tripura with mostly closed folds which gradually become tighter towards east in Mizoram.

- 3.2 Assam - Arakan region, Mizoram, Manipur and Tripura have drawn the attention of exploration geologists ever since the discovery of Digboi and Makum oil fields of Upper Assam around 1890. The Badarpur oil field in Cachar district of Assam, presently abandoned, was discovered in 1901. This discovery followed a spate of other discoveries in Assam since Sixties of the last Century. Gas occurrence in Tripura is very relevant to the exploration of the region. Commercial gas in this state was discovered during the late seventies of previous century within the Surma sequence of Miocene age. Several other gas fields have also been found since then.
- 3.3 Cachar- Tripura- Mizoram fold belt constitutes a distinct part of Assam-Arakan tectonic system. Myanmar's Shan Plateau and the Ophiolite complex extend to the east of it. The Bangladesh flood plains are to the west. The Naga Schuppen belt of Assam forms the northern extreme and Chittagong hill track (Bangladesh) lies to the south of it.
- 3.4 The area from which these seismic data were acquired is a part of Tripura – Cachar – Mizoram fold belt of Assam Arakan Basin. The Mizoram fold belt is composed of tight linear folds with their axes almost in north-south direction. The intensity of folding increases from west to east where the rocks of Indian plate sub-ducted below the Burmese plate. The anticlines are long, narrow and tight, whereas the synclines are broad and gentle. As per the geological section of the area of operation, the area has Tipam formation exposed in the central part and Bokabil formation is exposed in the eastern and western part. The Bhuban formation is divided in three formations as Lower, Middle and Upper Bhuban formations. Lower Bhuban formation is mainly alternations of sandstones and shale. The Middle Bhuban consists of mainly shale with subordinate sandstones. The Upper Bhuban consists of alternations of sandstones and shales.
- 3.5 Location of the Area: The block: MZ-ONN-2004/1 is situated in the Mizoram state and covers an area of 3213 Sq Km. The area lies in between the following broad coordinates:

Co-ordinates of Block MZ-ONN-2004/1

Points	Latitude (N)			Longitude (E)
	Deg.	Min.	Sec.	Deg.	Min.	Sec.
A	23	40	00	92	32	54.85
