hes to join IIT-Kharagpur and do electrical engineering.

"As I am a Dalit, I don't need to pay what candidates of general class pay, but still I need money. Though I have cracked it, money is still a matter of concern for the family as my father is a MGNREGA worker," said Nitin Kumar Jaatav while talking to TOI on Tuesday over phone from Dholpur.

Nitin has not just been good at studies, he has also helped his father as a daily wages labourer many a times. "When my father does it, I too can do it and I have no hesitation in saying that my father is a labourer who has provided me enough to ensure I get proper education," Nitin asserted.

The boy had scored 85% marks in Class X and 84% marks in Class XII. "I came to know that for poor students, Oil India Super 30 is an institute in Jodhpur that provides coaching for IIT exam. I gave a written exam for it and passed it," he added.

Dinesh Kumar, Nitin's teacher, said, "I will ensure that a talented student like him should get all that's required to get graduated from IIT. We will arrange for donors who will help the boy."

Sheer hard work and relentless effort can transform dreams into reality. It becomes true in case of Nilotpal Chakraborty, who qualified JEE Mains exam with score of 262 and JEE Advance with AIR 8418. In spite of hailing from poor family of a farmer, who could never think about premier engineering institution, Nilotpal came out victorious and proved that hard work is the only mean to transform dreams into reality. He scored highest marks in Mains examination among five hundred students of Abhayanand Super 30 present in 12 location of the country. His success proved that North East Region of India also has talent- what it need is propoer guidance and support. Nilotpal became a role model for many of the IIT aspirants who blames on destiny. Now he is pursuing B.Tech in Mechanical branch from NIT Trichy, one of the premier engg. Institute of India.

Nilotpal is a resident of Dhubri, Ramraykutir village, where his father does farming in a small piece of own land. His father also does private tuition in villages. Nilotpal completed his 10th from S.P. English Medium High School, Dhubri with 89.5% and after that 12th from Cotton College Guwahati with 90% marks. His elder sister who is pursuing M.Sc from BHU was the motivater and encourage him constantly.

Nilotpal dreamt of becoming engineer since childhood which became stronger gradually. During 12th he appeared in IIT Mains and qualified the exam with good marks. But he was not contented with the performance. He looked for a bigger platform but the financial status of family was not so strong to back his dream and afford private coaching for engineering entrance. In this circumstance where people leave everything to destiny he thought to fight with the situation. Her elder sister helped him in his struggle and inspired him to reach his goal.

In the mean time he came to know about Oil India Super 30, a CSR project of OIL under Education which provides eleven month free residential coaching to aspiring students for preparation of IIT/JEE. Without loosing much time he started preparing to get shortlisted in the written test and interview for the coaching. It was his strong griit and determination that among thousands of students he got selected for eleven months rigorous coaching at Oil India Super 30, Jorhat under sponsorship of Oil India Ltd.

He was always serious in studies, never missed a class and exam at centre. Nilotpal consistently came between 1st to 5th rank among rest of the students in various exam conducted at the Centre. During these 10 months his behavior and academic performance posed as an example for the rest of the students at the centre.

On his success, he expressed gratefulness towards Oil India Ltd. for providing such facility to the students and lending a helping hand in fulfilling his dream of pursuing engineereeing from a premier institute.

After paasing out here is what Nilotpal said about OIL Super 30 project & the coaching centre "The home type environment of centre makes me feel at home and it never distracted my mind from studies. The faculty members are very good. I got a lot of help in physics from Abhyanand Sir through telephonic discussion. The Hostel environment is very good. Group discussions and debates are daily programs of the centre in extracurricular activities section."
